In accordance with the Phi Gamma Delta Laws, Member recognizes his/her financial obligations to the chapter and that these financial obligations are continuing and are an integral part of his/her agreement to be initiated into the Phi Gamma Delta Chapter.

Charges assessed by the Chapter are due no later than twenty days after receipt of monthly statement beginning Fall quarter or semester of each year and continuing regularly and monthly thereafter until and including, the succeeding Summer quarter or semester. ("Regular Charges") Regular Charges may be paid at the beginning of each quarter or semester, or yearly, rather than monthly. In addition to Regular Charges, additional fees may be assessed to cover the expenses of The Chapter (i.e. rush, winter formal, repairs to chapter property). Member promises to pay to the order of the Chapter, the amount set forth on the payment schedule in those amounts and on the dates required by this Contract in addition to special assessments. All payments for charges not received on behalf of the Chapter at 216 27th Avenue NW, Gig Harbor WA, 98335; or such other address as stipulated by the Chapter, by the due date set forth on each statement shall be considered delinquent and may be assessed late fines.

In addition to the Schedule of Charges, Member shall be liable for any Special Assessments approved by the Chapter. In the event that any charges have not yet been determined, Member shall be liable for the amount of charges approved by the Chapter. The charges set forth in this Contract may be modified by the Chapter at any time during the term of this Contract. In the event Member is unable to pay his/her obligations in a timely fashion under this Contract, Member agrees to immediately contact the Treasurer and provide evidence of the legitimate cause for delinquency.

Member is aware that Phi Gamma Delta has no provisions for resignation of Members (or "inactive" status). Member recognizes that the obligations under this contract shall continue during the full term of this contract until the first of the following occur:

- (i) Member no longer attends Washington State University due to withdrawal, expulsion, transfer, graduation, or failure to re-enroll; or
(ii) Member is expelled from Phi Gamma Delta Chapter in accordance with the Phi Gamma Delta Laws; or
(iii) Death.

Member's obligations hereunder shall be prorated to the date of termination.

In the event there is any damage to any of the Chapter's property, the Chapter shall attempt to determine the responsible Member (or in the event such damage was caused by a visitor, the Member who invited such party or allowed such party to enter on the Chapter House premises). In such event Member agrees to pay the full cost of the repair or replacement of the damaged items. In the event the Chapter, after reasonable attempts, cannot determine the responsible Member(s), then the cost or repair or replacement of the damaged items may be charged pro rata to each Member.

In the event Member defaults under the obligations of this Contract and this Contract is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection (whether or not suit is filed), Member agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees and expenses of collection incurred by the chapter including collection agency fees up to 50% of the outstanding balance where permitted by law.

Member agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold the Chapter and all property owned or leased by the Chapter, real and personal, including the Chapter House, free and harmless from any and all liability for injury to or death of any person, or for damage to property, real or personal, arising out of or caused by the negligence, act, or omission of Member, and his/her guest and invitees.

The terms of this Contract shall not be modified except by written amendment executed by the Chapter and Member.
